2014 Chuckanut Century!

EARLY SIGN-UP SPECIAL UNTIL SEPTEMBER 1ST

Planning is moving right along for the Chuckanut Century, which is Sunday, September 14th this year. Doug has posters ready to distribute and would appreciate folks willing to put them up (360.410.6431 contact Doug about posters).

Early registration closes September 1st, so sign up by then to get a discount and to guarantee a tech-tee shirt. And remember, MBBC members can take an additional $5 off your registration fee! Sign up on active.com or download the printable form on chuckanutcentury.org and mail it in with a check.

As September approaches, there will be need for people to mark roads, help on Sept 14th at registration and at the after-party at Boundary Bay. Whether you'll be riding or not, there are lots of ways to be involved with the Mt Baker Bike Club's annual "end of summer signature ride."

This year we're getting help from Taylor Bell, our wonderful Volunteer Coordinator, and from others involved with our beneficiary OurTreeHouse. If you'd like information on volunteering or help with the Chuckanut Century, please contact Taylor at volunteercentury@gmail.com or at 602.738.0119. General questions about the ride can also be directed to Doug Schoonover: chuckanutcentury@mtbakerbikeclub.org or 360.410.6431.

Northwest Tandem Rally 2015 - nwtr.org/2015

BELLINGHAM NWTR COMMITTEE FIRING ON ALL CYLINDERS

Bellingham's contingent from the 2015 Northwest Tandem Rally Planning Committee went to Pendleton, Oregon for the 2014 NWTR and returned with pre-registrations of 100 people, a Title Sponsor, a bunch of "Bellingham 2015" caps sold, and a lot of enthusiasm.

Tandem Diversity has partnered with us as Title Sponsor for the July 2-6, 2015 event. A Bellingham company run by Mark and Chris Owings, Tandem Diversity is a tandem-focused sales and touring organization. The Owings bring local and national tandeming expertise, having toured around the world as well as collected a large number of tandem bicycles. www.tandemdiversity.com

Our Bellingham vendor fair booth at the Pendleton NWTR gained a lot of attention, thanks to the flashy banners loaned by our Banquet Sponsor, Bellingham Whatcom Tourism. We also had Voler jerseys fit-kits for people to try on and find their size, in anticipation of our NWTR 2015 jerseys which will be for sale next year. We had maps showing routes for 4 days of rides, and plenty of Bellinghamsters were available to talk up the great riding that is Bellingham and Whatcom/Skagit county in the summer.

There was enough buzz around the Pendleton rally to entice 100 people to pre-register for Bellingham's 2015 event. The special early-registration pricing that was offered only to Pendleton attendees was also a motivator.

The large (and getting larger) NWTR 2015 planning committee met in July and among status updates was the good news that the City of Bellingham parks department has agreed to sponsor RV and tent camping with special permission just for this event. Campers will be able to set up behind Civic Fields, which will put them close to the start of each day's rides, and to the host hotel: the Best Western Lakeway Inn. Registration, the annual rally Banquet (featuring The Atlantics) and Vendor Fair will be held at the Lakeway. Vendor spots are already being reserved!

In the next few months, the committee will be working on signing up more vendors and sponsors, as well as finalizing plans for lots of Bellingham-specific fun options for 2015 tandemers. On top of the excellent bicycling, rally attendees can expect craft beer tasting, Bellingham Bay cruising, music festival concerts, and more! Registration will open on January 1, 2015.
